

Sweet Cart Hire Allergen and Dietary information

Our sweet cart is hired out at the hirers responsibility, it is therefore down to the person(s) or organisation hiring this equipment to take into account individuals dietary needs and allergies before they consume any products. Function One Entertainment or its staff can not be held responsible for anyone who does not take the time to read the following allergen information and agreement attached to this cart.

ALLERGEN ADVICE:

Please note that some sweets may contain NUTS or NUT OILS and/or may have been produced alongside other NUTS or NUT OIL containing products. You should assume that all items are produced alongside other items containing NUTS or NUT OILS

Therefore Function One Entertainment and its staff can NOT take any responsibility from any illness, Issues, Complications and/or death due to any allergies and/or intolerances. There will be a sweet ingredients list provided with the sweet cart please check this if you have any concerns.

Please however be mindful that the tongs and scoops provided will be used by other people may have been used on all products and cross contamination may have occurred inside the jars and on the scoops and tongs. It should always be assumed that cross contamination has happened or is highly likely.

The hirer is NOT allowed to add any of their own sweets or products to our cart only sweets provided by us are to be used unless it is a dry hire, This is for traceability and insurance purposes.

VEGETARIAN AND VEGAN:

NONE of the products provided by us are suitable for vegans and lots of the items are also NOT suitable for vegetarians please look at the ingredients list for more information on each product.

(Please note that not all the items on the sweet and ingredients list are on this cart only the ones chosen by the hirer, product pictures are included as a reference only as to what the product should look like. For confirmation please speak to the person(s) responsible for hiring this cart.